Cultural Heritage Preservation

Eligibility: Rising Sophomore/Sophomore/Junior/Senior/Graduate Student & Good Academic Standing

Subject Area: Ancient and Medieval Civilization, Archaeology, Architecture, Classics, Cultural Heritage Preservation

Term: Summer

Language of Instruction: English

Credits: 6

Housing: Apartment with kitchen access

The Cultural Heritage Preservation (CHAPS) program is hosted and led by the Center for Hellenic and Mediterranean Studies in Athens. Targeted for advanced undergraduate and graduate students, you will take a 3-credit course in Topics in Cultural Heritage Preservation and participate in a 3-credit internship or independent project.

Where will your next class be?
studyabroad.rutgers.edu