The Art History in Paris is a six-week program led by faculty from the Rutgers Art History Department. This program is taught entirely on-site. You'll either be standing in front of the works of art and architecture, or out on the city streets. Through the study of monuments, architecture, and urban landscapes, you will learn about the history and art of Paris from the time of the Ancient Romans to present day.

Two scholarships of $1,500 each will be awarded with priority given to art history majors and/or minors.
